If you were right here with me
I would want you to see
(I would want you to see)
That without you girl
There would be no one else in this world

If you would only take my hand
And try to understand
(Try to understand)
That you're the only one
That I would want to be my girl

And all I do is think of you
'Cause the feelings I have are so true
Each day I wait
When I can say that I love you

'Cause girl, it's you
That I've been wanting all my life
Girl, you know that it's right
When I looked into your eyes
I knew that I give you my heart to you
(Give my heart to you)
Girl, it's you
Girl, it's you

Oh girl, I thought about you endlessly
(Babe, endlessly)
That's the way it should always be (Always be, should always be)
Can't you understand
I want to be your man for all times
(For all times)

Forever girl, I'll be right here
(Forever girl)
My thoughts of you won't ever disappear
(Whoa)
You'll always stay within my heart for all eternity
(All eternity)

'Cause girl, it's you

That I've been wanting all my life
Girl, you know that it's right
When I looked into your eyes
I knew that I give you my heart to you
(Give my heart to you)
Girl, it's you

As fast as it may seem
(You are the one for me)
I'm tired of hiding all my hopes and dreams
(That no one else could ever be)

Girl, there's no other way
(And I just want to tell you this)
And I wait for the day that I could feel your lips
(With a kiss upon)

Girl, it's you
That I've been wanting all my life
(Wanting all my life)
Girl, you know that it's right
(Girl, don't you know that I need you so)
When I looked into your eyes
I knew that I give my heart to you
(I just want to give my heart to you)

I've wanted all my life
(You're the only one I need in my life)
Girl, you know that it's right
(You know that it's right)
('Cause when I looked into your eyes)
When I looked into your eyes
I knew that I give my heart to you
(I knew I give my heart to you)
Girl, it's you
