I call you up tonight
Girl we don't talk anymore
Sometimes I fantasize
That you would walk
Right through that door

When I wake
You're not there
Still I know
That you still care

Something inside of me
Tells me you want me
Tells me you need me, baby girl
Something inside of me
Tells me you need me
Tells me you want me, baby girl

How can I hit you right
When you let my heart
Just slip away

So come and do me right
And I'll be the sun that shines your way
I'll be there, for you

Now I know that this much is true

Something inside of me
Tells me you want me
Tells me you need me, baby girl
Something inside of me
Tells me you need me
Tells me you want me, baby girl

I spend my nights reading letters from you
Going over and on in my mind
I'd give my heart just for one kiss from you
Cause I can't hide what's deep down inside

Something inside of me
Tells me you want me

Tells me you need me, baby girl
Something inside of me
Tells me you need me
Tells me you want me, baby girl
(repeat x4)
