Verse 1:

In a dream I hold you close
Embracing you with my hands
You gazed at me with eyes full of love
And you made me understand
That I was meant to share with you
My heart my mind my soul
Then I open my eyes and all I see
Reality shows I'm alone
But I know someday that you'll be my side
'cause I know GOD is just waiting 'til the time is right

Chorus:

GOD will you keep her safe from the thunder storm
When the day is cold, will you keep her warm
When darkness falls, will you please shine her the way
GOD will you let her know that I love her so
When there's no one there, that she's not alone
Just close her eyes and let her know that my heart is beating with hers

Verse 2:

So I pray...until that day (until that day)
When our hearts beat as one (when our hearts beat as one)
I will wait so patiently (patiently) for that day to come
I know some day that you'll be by my side
'cause I know GOD just waiting 'til the time is right

Chorus:

GOD will you keep her safe from the thunder storm
When the day is cold, will you keep her warm
When darkness falls, will you please shine her the way
GOD will you let her know that I love her so
When there's no one there, that she's not alone
Just close her eyes and let her know that my heart is
beating with hers

It's beating with hers...my heart is beating with hers...it's beating with hers

Chorus:

GOD will you keep her safe from the thunder storm
When the day is cold, will you keep her warm
When darkness falls, will you please shine her the way
GOD will you let her know that I love her so
When there's no one there, that she's not alone
Just close her eyes and let her know that my heart is
beating with hers

Oh...oh....it's beating with hers

(whispers: it's beating with hers)
