[Music by Bache, Mueller, Werning ? Lyrics by Jensen]

Self-destructive glory, how can you never understand?!
It's downhill from here.

A bitter dishonest fear shining in your eyes will never stop this world from turning.

Resisting words coming to an end, still haven't learnt a thing.

Final warning, here comes your judgement day.

Awaiting reality to shatter, the lies you're calling safety,

Won't hold you harmless when you fall!

[Lead : Bache / Lead: Mueller]

Foul, distant notion of false tranquillity at heart, it all amounts to nothing!

[Lead: Bache]

The hope you crave is swallowed by decay at last,
And still you will not listen. Final warning gone to waste.
Inciting the experience of regret, an all-consuming passion turns to emotional emptiness.

Resisting words coming to an end, still haven't learnt a
thing,

Final warning, here comes your judgement day.

Self-destructive glory, how could you never understand? It went downhill from there,

A bitter, dishonest fear shining in your eyes, it didn't stop this world from turning.
