Its time to say goodnight..
Its time to say good-bye..
Hello broken promises, hello summer nights
The last lie i told you was only that I cared
The last time I said your name the letters spelled out..

Falling again..(this time I hope we're falling out)
I hope you forget those words I always said
Its time to say so long..
Its time to make it right..
I screamed out all the words to you, I gave you every line
Now I want you to hate my voice
I hope it hurts inside when you think about me..

Falling again..(this time I hope we're falling out)
I hope you forget those words I always said
