Yeah

I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold my pride
And I'm holding on to time
...To time

I can't believe it, I throw it all away
I can't believe it, my lifes not the same as yesterday
It's undiscovered, the futures so unclear
Well I discovered the life I want

I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold my pride
And I'm holding on to time
...To time

I've got a feeling, that I will rise again
I've got a feeling, these nightmares i'm living will end
I'll wait a lifetime to catch endless bride
I'll need a lifetime to try my best

I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold my pride
And I'm holding... over and over and that's whhhhhy...

I'm waiting, waiting, for a sign

I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold my pride
And I'm holding on to time
...To time
...To time yeah
...To time yeah

Well ya i'm holding onto time
Well i'm holding on to time
