It's like a hurricane when she walks through the room and I don't know what

To say

It's like a hurricane when she comes through and through my eyes she knows

I'm awake

It's my little payback for living a lie that, held me up then let me down

It's her little payback for living a life that, held her up
then let her down

For the first time, and the last time

It's the hardest thing I ever faced but

It's not helping me because

She levels me with all her angry lies

And I don't know what to say

She levels me with all her angry eyes

And I don't know what to say

It's like a hurricane when she starts noticing and I don't know what to think

It's like a hurricane when she stops in front of me my heart begins to sink

It's my little payback for living a lie that, held me up
then let me down

It's her little payback for living a life that, held her up
then let her down

For the first time, and the last time

It's the hardest thing I ever faced but

It's not helping me because

She levels me with all her angry lies

And I don't know what to say

She levels me with all her angry eyes

And I don't know what to say
