A journey between time and space alone in this ship
The view from the window is sad and I'm far from my earth
Searchin' my memories and thinking about you and me
I want to leave soon this place to come back in my house

Can't you hear my reason
Through this prison bring this sadness

Visions surrounding like eyes of the dead I'm alone
I'm feeling the fear of the dark growin' up could help me

Can't you hear I'm screaming
From this prison bring me back soon

Get back to my world dead or alive
I'm wasting all of my time
Get back to my world I'm still alive
I will reach for the high's in my mind

"... how does he feel?" "he's out of control... no way to heal him"
"so! it's time to join us" "no please"
"you still believe in your Jesus?" "yes I do"
"he's closer, forget him, forget him!"

Could you hear my reason
Through this prison bring this sadness

Get back to my world dead or alive
I'm wasting all of my time
Get back to my world I'm still alive
I will reach for the high's in my mind
