"Mirrors Of The Night"

Visit "Mirrors Of The Night" on MotoLyrics.com

I've seen all my destiny Wrecked in the sea of madness Screaming out the name of god Victim of your lies and your wasted tears I'm held captured by my fear Lost in my myself waiting for a 7th sign

Reflecting into your eyes escaping from my obsession I still remember the promise you made Returning through the light light of emotions as you can see I'll rise again

I spent my life to dream in the mirrors of the night and day falling down from you eternal spell now it's broken down passing through the void of you can you feel I'll never die
