Hidden places to find our souls with your love
No remorse, no revenge until your mind will be free
I'll play to come back you soon to feel still your kisses
To get out rage into the sea of belief

For those who care, for those who wants to beleive in ourself
My words reveal all the secrets of my life and my soul

Scream, your fists on the wall your blood from your eyes
The life0s fallin' down and you'll stay far away from me, far from me

I'm lost in this word just for you
I'll ask all for you, to be your best friend in life
To feel the warms from your arms, togheter we'll ready
In this space we will fly again
And I'll be ready

It will take you away for the rest of your life

So I'll be the man who'll still believe in this shit anymore?
And you'll still far away from me, far away from me

I'm lost in this word just for you
I'll ask all for you, to be your best friend in life
To feel the warms from your arms, togheter we'll ready
In this space we will fly again
And I'll be ready
