immortal yet dead bent on burying the living, Resurrecting the Antichrist through viscous killings, devouring flesh, through malignant distress,

cursed into existence once again,
I cannot be killed now, your only option is to bow, Plead me to spare thee, yet I'll leave you with fatalities blood fills the gorge to sustain, Sacrifices eternal and inhumane, Slicing throats, blood-soaked under dead-silent rain,
Sent from Hell, into this filthy human shell,
As a reaper to slaughter every preacher,
Feasting on the flesh of women and children,
Homicide is breath to the unforgiven, Maniac with bloodstained intentions Leaving his victims with multiple mutilations, defecating and semen staining their coffins,
As reversed readings are done for their doctrines, unholy serenade, while penetrating the decayed, Until nothing remained, and still hungered for more,
Blood, damned, soul, drenched, sacrilegious, suicidal, and vile, putrid essence of perdition, let me die, and become amongst these corpse, cant desire such parasites anymore
cant desire such parasites.... anymore
