"Throbless Black Heart"

A throbless black heart, lays buried, within the open jaws of my ribs, (tear out my heart) ribs, throbless it remains (eternal), hatred it sleeps contained, throbless, yet breathing (into the lungs of hell), throbless, yet scheming, (in your fate) a new corpse it shall attain, to pump bleak blackness,
through each useless vein, a new one shall return, death will not defeat me, death cannot deceit me (deceit me), death will bring me to life (to life) again, again, and again, until all blood (and flesh) is desecrated, in His name
