Kiss and receive milk and honey in paradise.
Adam & Eve share an orange of giant size.
Life is a film, a golden dream.

Simple believe every moment is extasy.
Adam & Eve fly upstream with a bumblebee.
Inside a tree the aliens watch.

We are children of the rainbows in a fire that will melt us into one.
We are beauty in the twilight just like horses in a dance.
We weep with joy. A rain of hope. Two hands as one.
No one has been here before.

Hearts are naive when you're free in a mystery.
Adam & Eve laugh like dolphins at you and me.
Life is a film, a golden dream.
When love is all we know.
