Where do we go from here!
I feel my jumping gear
There must be something in the air
Now should I make my move?
Just like that fairytale
I kiss her lips then she wakes up
Together, far and wide
May be she'll be my guide
But maybe far ain't far enough!
One two three four five,
I've been hitting on a girl
She made me wonder
She looked so fine, I was blind
Been living a lie tonight
Oh no
I feel ridiculous
Some stupid dumb-ass fool
I said; you're hot, I'm in the mood
So true, like one two three
She moved her lips, she said;
I like you too and I'm a dude
So glad we ditched the script
Before I kissed his lips
Imagine what if we got there!
One two three four five,
I've been hitting on a girl
She made me wonder
She looked so fine, I was blind
Been living a lie tonight
One two three four five,
I've been hitting on a girl
She made me wonder
She looked so fine, so blind
Been hitting on a guy tonight
One two three four five,
I've been living a lie tonight
She looked so fine, so blind
