I can imagine
That you feel so insecure
It looks like a dead-end
The suits act really immature
They're fussing and fighting
Talking loud and saying nothing all the time

Well we're sick of this
It's time we take control
We'll blow them all away
Let's do this

A whole new era
Has begun
Cause we're in charge now
We're on the run
A whole new era
Everyone
The future's near
So let's go on

We're coming up
They fade away
The youth takes over
Do believe me
No time for empty talks and bragging
All the time

Well we're sick of this
I think I lose my mind
We'll blow them all away
Let's do it

A whole new era
Has begun
Cause we're in charge now
We're on the run
A whole new era
Everyone
The future's near
So let's go on

This time we take care
As you would have noticed
It's really a breeze
So nothing can go wrong

We'll take it over and over again
We'll take it over and over again
We'll take it over and over again

A whole new era
Has begun
Cause we're in charge now
We're on the run
A whole new era
Everyone
The future's near
So let's go on

This time we take care
As you would have noticed
It's really a breeze
So nothing can go wrong
We'll take it over and over again
We'll take it over and over again
