When Iâ€™m on the loose, it is you whoâ€™s shining
through and through again.
Whenever, the rain comes down, the sun turns grey.
When I needed you, you were always there.
When it comes to you, really nothing can compare.

You feel what I feel, know what I know.
Even through the darkest night youâ€™ll see what I see.

Thereâ€™s a reason to believe in you and me.

I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby
donâ€™t kill me tonight.
Would you hold on for me girl, love me tomorrow..

When Iâ€™m feeling blue, it is you whoâ€™s reaching out
for me again.
Whenever, I need your wings to fly away.
You feel what I feel, hear what I hear.
Even through the darkest night youâ€™ll sleep where I sleep.

Thereâ€™s a reason to believe in faith cus heaven is in the air!

I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby
donâ€™t kill me tonight.
Would hold on to me girl, love me tomorrow, love me
tomorrow again..

So if you need me, I will be there, another thousand miles I will be there.
I wonâ€™t hate you, I will see through, even through the darkest Iâ€™ll be true.

I would die if you left me, drowning in sorrow, baby
donâ€™t kill me tonight.
Cus so I wrote you these words down, for you to remember, for you to remember why,
I love you.
