Don't wanna know the answers why you don't know where to go I don't wanna know the reasons why you don't know where you are makin it real, and makin it last
I just wanna feel... free, free to change the world, I'm flying I'm free, free to change the world if the sky above was fallin and the sun was on the wing you could hear the angels callin you could even hear em sing if the time feels right gotta loose the brakes cause it's all about descisions that only you can take makin it real, and

makin it ast
it's time to reveal we'll get us there...

I'm free, free to change the world, I'm flying I'm free, free to change the world

if the world is all against you and you ve got an aching heart you can fear the devil's eyes but you can also play his part now the time seems right
cause it's all about the future that only you can make makin it real, and
it's time to reveal
we'll get us there...

I'm free, free to change the world

free, free to change the world I'm free, free to change the world free, I'm free, free to change the world

I'm free, free to change the world
I'm free, free to change the world, I'm flying free to change the world
