Dazzled by the morning light
Trying to catch up on last night
Not just me her again
I turn my head to see
Thank you, it was fun! she wrote
Again, these words stuck in my throat
Its coming back, were at the club
Wed taken a few and ended up
Wined and dined, then up she jumped
She drove me mad, she gave me head
She blew my mind, I got behind
Watch out for this killer-babe!
Hello she says, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
She and I, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
On and on
Too hard, too hot
She damn well knew to hit that spot
There's no way out, Man! Im screwed
She new exactly when and what she'd do
How do you do?
Hello she says, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
She and I, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
Dazzled by the morning light
Trying to catch up on last night
Not just me her again
I turn my head to see
Hello she says, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
She and I, Hello and goodbye
The morning after shell be gone
The morning after thank you it was fun
Dazzled by the morning light
Trying to catch up on last night
Again it's her
I turn my head to see
