On a day like this, the feelings are so strong
Blinded by the dream, it's hard for us to see
Will we count the cost of always wanting more
Never satisfied with what we had before

Don't let it bring you down
There's no need to hide
From feeling inside
You've got to hold on
And if you're on your own
And the walls are closing
Remember the love
You've got to hold on

Deep inside ourselves we always feel the truth
That if we learn to give, we could learn to live
This could be our fate creating something new Just give up all the past, and all that you knew

Don't let it bring you down
There's no need to hide
From feeling inside
You've got to hold on
And if you're on your own
And the walls are closing

Remember the love
You've got to hold on
You've got to hold

Everybody needs someone
Gotta be a place we belong
Everybody needs something
All you need is to believe
Everybody needs someone
Gotta be a place we belong
Everybody needs something
All you need is to believe

Don't let it bring you down
There's no need to hide
From feeling inside

You've got to hold on

Don't let it bring you down
There's no need to hide
From feeling inside
You've got to hold on
And if you're on your own
And the walls are closing
Remember the love
You've got to hold on

And if you're on your own
Don't let it bring you down
You've got to hold on
