Lose your head lay your soul Lick your wounds and taste the blood Feel the pain on your own cause it hurts so lovely choose your hell, meet the fog let it all surround the core be the one like the storm lighting through the darkness no never no never
never fear to suffer
never hide behind a smile
never hide behind your lies
never cry without a sound be the sigh in a song be the silence in a romp be the stain on the wall be the one deciding be the first and not too late be the last performance
