Bye bye catch you later
I've gotta go
You don't know where I gotta go
Hey you what's your story
Let me know let me know I should know

I'm too close to the edge
Get my feet on solid ground
Well believe me believe me
I won't let you down now
For crying out loud

One step closer to your dream
We can always chase it
Why should you live your life on a leash

Ten miles two steps forward
Wanna know wanna know
I go way to fast
Hey you earn your glory
You should know gotta go right now

Chin up in the air
Got my feet on solid ground
Well believe me believe me
I know where to go now
For crying out loud!

One step closer to your dream
We can always chase it
Why should you live your life on a leash
One step closer to your dream
We can always chase it
I'm here and with you

I'll reached for the sky and just let it come my way
The light from above will brighten up my day

The way the road to faith will take the pain away
The way the road to faith I take
Will lead me through the iron gate

My mind my soul I'm free at last
My dreams come true and I'll be blessed
My mind my soul I'm free at last forever I'll be blessed
Yeah!

One step closer to your dream
We can always chase it
Why should you live your life on a leash

One step closer to your dream
We can always chase it
I'm here and with you
I'm here and with you with you
I'm here and with you
