"Ships & Shivers"

I haven't seen the daylight ever since I left the shore
I really can't remember now the ship is on its course
But I ain't gonna worry
I ain't gonna care
'Cause today I'm right in the middle of her heart

She wanted to be friendly
She wanted me to see
A wave on silent water took away what I believed
But I ain't gonna worry
I ain't gonna care
'Cause today I'm right in the middle of the dark side
From today I'll stay in the middle of her arms
