Beware my shadow as it falls on the crowd
That's what my reflection said to me out loud
I broke my hand to prove I stand my ground
Now I'm a wolf out on the prowl

Give me all of your weak and afraid
Cos I'm the king of a one man crusade
Now I can tell you've got your trade
But now I see through your charade

Painting the stage with my blood
I'll watch you drown, in your own
Suffering, heartache, no lies / and lies
I'm bleeding myself dry . . .

Shuffle a new deck of cards
We're kings and peasants in a new game
You show me you're hand and I'll show you mine
Cos I'm the joker in the pack . . .

Painting the stage with my blood
I'll watch you drown, in your own
Suffering, heartache, no lies / and lies
I'm bleeding myself dry . . .
