Whatever happened to what's her name
Light blue eyes crooked smile on a cute face
A tattooed snake from her left arm
Way down to her back
Just like in a dream or in a movie
I walked out when she said
I want you I need you (love you)
You were made for me
I love I need you now
Over and over again
Whatever happened to what's her name
Whatever happened to what's her name?
Bright red hair and a piercing in a secret place
She had the key to her heart
On a chain round her neck
Just like in dream under pressure
I walked out when she said
I want you I need you (love you)
You were made for me
I love I need you now
Over and over again
Whatever happened to what's her name
Life keeps movin yeah
Life keeps changin yeah
Cant stop thinking bout her
And Im sorry yeah
Every morning yeah
I wake up without her
I want you I need you (love you)
You were made for me
I love I need you now
Over and over again
Whatever happened to what's her name
