"Elegance In Black"

I show how others' pain can relieve my soul
I am a morbid face of mankind
I embrace all the things she considers too filthy
I suck pleasure from strangers' flesh
I crawl in vanity - hide my insanity
I tear apart your life again
Cos' I can't help myself
I desire all in flesh
In it's simplicity
I have found my way
Elegance in black (so cold)
Elegance in black (in me)
Elegance in black (so cold)
Elegance in black (in me)
I make her a victim of my sick addiction
I close my eyes from her suffering
Chronic deception in this empire of lust
No-one can hold this flame forever
Cos' I can't help myself
I desire all in flesh
In it's simplicity
I have found my way
Elegance in black (so cold)
Elegance in black (in me)
Elegance in black (so cold)
Elegance in black (in me)
