"Hammer"

I don't remember last night
Did I past out or did I get into a fight Well, now it's just you and me and I would love to take you for a ride It's like a shot right between the eyes

I'm so sick and tired of your face They remind me that everything has gone insane Whoa, that is exactly how I feel So come on, let me entertain you until your voice is dead

Say your prayers little one
The end has now begun and I waste no time at all
'cos here we stand or here we fall

It's time for the hammer to fall

Forward march to the point of no return
Can you feel the sound of war?

I've got nothing left to lose So you can just sit back and watch yourself becoming number two
I will treat you like a dog Don't you know bad things come quick so this shouldn't take too long
