What do you,
when the devil looks right in your eyes?
and you find out your entire life is a lie inside capital hill those cowards were laughing the towers were crashin they allowed it to happen devoured the fragments and the media's sight with some of the sickest shit I have ever seen in my life orchestrated by masons all related their royal seal and oil fields corporate hatred but how could I be concerned with world war?
Gotta worry about dyin from stickin some girl raw What you heard before aint as big as a lesson As George and Jeb Bush rigged elections press release worldwide west to east followed by George junior?s acceptance speech Im too stressed to sleep but believe Im alive cause death just creeps so I sleep when I die Im screamin out why as I reach for the sky I danced with the devil God don?t even reply burn weed till Im high with my chest weezin left breathin, shadow of death creepin my ex beefin layin threats to get even me dreamin of Russian Roulette left leakin but if I was left leakin I?d be acceptin judgement so I made my choice I aint acceptin nothing

I don?t believe your truth, I?ve been lied to So if your ready to fight, I?m right beside you
If you don?t believe, you don?t see what I do Just open your eyes, the truth is inside you

I run into CBS with a beret and shootin this way I can televise the revolution no resolution when cops load up a glock clip and shoot like (Luke Diablo?) holdin his wallet luckily bolic was raised in street smarts taught since birth to evade police narks prayin to God fightin satan?s beast mark hopin one day I could make the seas part I cross the train tracks and hear an outcry Like why is the ghetto always on the southside Skeptics will understand the art of war when they lock the streets and declare martial law when a rain of microchips starts to pour what the fuck do you think the national guard is for it's a bad dream when Big Brother maps genes and inject technology in kids vaccines its next to nothin but my blood pressures rushin and damn right I'll fight sleep cause deaths its cousin but now maybe you'll believe me and listen a bit when you're all in line to get a microchip in your wrist we livin this shit, governments playin the role they invented aids for population control they've taken a hold and sold satan your soul while people like you and me are breakin the mold

I don't believe your truth, I've been lied to
So if your ready to fight, I'm right beside you
If you don't believe, you don't see what I do
Just open your eyes, the truth is inside you

Its not just my home its real in every place like anthrax sent from a military base ya'll let me lay stakes who imitate the disciples watchin the catholic church manipulate the bible I never stood a chance and joined the scripture freemason's free basin poised in the mixture my point is true with the boys in blue got me lookin over my shoulder tryin to enjoy the view I got two words for Bloomberg and Giuliani Fuck you George Bush and the Illuminati I wanna go to the oval office and pop a few and act out the cover of Revolutionary Volume 2 they watchin you for national past time believe me I'll be red flagged for the last line pull down the lockdown for the hood forever be a bigger gang than the bloods and the crips put together marines still dying in Iraq it seems ill Bush already contracted the Lobbyists for rebill They'll fund his campaign and be an infallous vermin Tryin to build a pipeline owned by Halliburton But God's watchin us to keep the evidence clear While Lucifer whispers orders in the president's ear Heaven is near but hell is even closer I live it everyday watchin demons approach us

I don't believe your truth, I've been lied to
So if your ready to fight, I'm right beside you
