First Love

thanks to Kim for submitting the lyrics your first love your first love is your first love is someone that your first love is someone that you never forget(x5)

They say it's better to have loved and lost
Then never to have loved at all
Try to sell it to this heart of mine
They say it's gonna take time
I think I've cried about a million tears
Done a lot of living in a few short years
I'm getting it on with someone new Still I can't forget you

You're the first to ever really kiss me
You're the first to ever break my heart
Now I know in my life there'll be others
But you will always be my first love

Everybody in the world can see
What my new boy means to me
Makes me feel like a woman inside
Where my little girl used to hide
Getting on with my life again
Still think about you every now and then There's got to be a first time for everything
But baby when it comes to loving...

You're the first to ever really kiss me
You're the first to ever break my heart
Now I know in my life there'll be others
But you will always be my first love

Looking at some photographs
How I'm missing
Craving the way you make me go "ooh ooh"
That awkward moment when you drove me home
Saying "Sunday seven" on the telephone

Your first love is someone that you never forget(x4)

You're the first to ever really kiss me
You're the first to ever break my heart
Now I know in my life there'll be others
But you will always be my first love
You're the first to ever really touch me
Not the last who's gonna make me cry
Now I know in my life there'll be others

Your first love is someone that you never forget(x15)Billie Lyrics Index
