"See-Thru"

I'll try to tell a story
It's so blue
Really happened to me
Could happen to anyone

Even if you don't face me
If you just ignore
You can't hide it from me baby
It's easier if you hide it from yourself

This situation is clear enough
For me to realize
That I can see through
I can see through you
All I wanted was to love
And be loved
But many obstacles
Made us fall

Maybe I expect too much
Never sure how to know
Who is right and who is wrong
Is all a matter of point of view

I see through
I see through you
You're so see-thru
I see through you
