Now they know by ms. 32, so tell me what you want to do?

We can just go kick it, buy a ticket if you truly do.

Boy how about you get your friends, 'cause I got partners too

We been drinking, and been drinking, smoking on some purple too

What y'all trying get into? We been rocking all night
I got people that's got people that's waiting to start a fight

See we be on that top flight that Greygoose done got me buzzed

My Cadillac parked right outside if you trying to leave the club, 'cause I got

I mean what's up I ain't trying to be a gull
I'm the baddest bitch up in here all these other hoes is dull, yep

Just call me Sherbet, you'll be Yogi Bear, baby

Willy Wonka called me 32, I drove his ass crazy!

It don't phase me, Basking Robbins up next

We been chitting and been chatting on cutting the back check

Diamonds all across my neck, VV's in my chain

It's the same old chick ain't a damn thing changed
