"Run"

The dogs are howling and the night is black enough to touch

So hold up that fire burning flame of love
And when the darkness comes like it does for us all

You'd better run to my world
And we'll never come down, 'cause when we're up, we're up
And we'll never stop trying

Ooh, baby when it's tough, it's tough
But what can I do when I'm loving you
And there's only need, the need for us too

I'm racing to you on the breath of fire, yeah
My lips are open with that sweet desire
So come running to me, yeah

Run like the wind, run to my heart don't stop
Run to my world, run to my mountain top
Run, yeah, yeah
Run 'til you drop, yeah

And we've got nothing but time in a world of lies
But when I see love right there in my baby's eyes
I can hold on to that something we've got
I can be strong, just strong enough for the two of us

Into the shadows of our love we go
Familiar heartland at the edge of home
On a long road, I'll see you there

Run like the wind, run to my heart don't stop
Run to my world, run to my mountain top
I say, run baby, run baby, run baby, run baby
Run 'til you drop, yeah, yeah

Don't stop, run baby run
Run baby run
Hold on to that fire burning flame of love
Run, yeah, yeah
Run, yeah yeah

Run like the wind, run to my heart don't stop
Run to my world, run to my mountain top
I say, run baby, run baby, run baby, run baby
Run never stop

Run baby, run baby, run baby, run baby
Run 'til you drop, yeah, yeah
