"Be Fair With Me Baby"

I'm helpless without you, baby
I've almost lost my man
Yes, helpless without you, baby
I've almost lost my man

I'm blue and confused
Since you left me behind

My friends all know it, baby
The tears, I cannot hide
My friends all know it, baby
The tears, I cannot hide

You've changed, you're dispositioned
And throw my love aside

Our love can start anew
Please be fair with me, baby
Our love can start anew

I'm blue and helpless, baby
And I'm worried over you
Yes, I'm worried
I've got the helpless blue
