Forget if you can
Romantic music one magical night
A corner table in dim candle light
A kiss that was heaven for two

Forget if you can
The day we hiked to where nobody knows
The swell spaghetti at Tony and Joe's
It hasn't been fun without you

Don't you remember
All the silly things we used to do?
The way we laughed
When we were photographed
As handsome hat and his ten-timing gal

Why shouldn't we play
More happy moments like we used to spend?
They were so perfect
Too perfect to end
Let your heart forget if you can

Don't you remember
All the silly things we used to do?
The way we laughed
When we were photographed
As handsome hat and his ten-timing gal

Why couldn't we play
More happy moments like we used to spend?
They were so perfect
Too perfect to end
Let your heart forget if you can
