Well, He hung the moon, raised the sun
Made the lions walk and the rivers run
He sat down, looked around
And thought a bit said, "It's all good but that ain't quite it"
So with His mighty hand He created man and then

He had a better idea, a much better idea
He made an angel like sweet perfume
Heavenly smile, someone who can light up a room with a heart so true
I thank God, He created me but when I look at you I see
He had a better idea

For I'd have to face this world alone
Just walk through life without a hand to hold
And I accepted that, I said in fact it might be nice
Oh, to live my way now that's paradise
Be He knew all along, I was wrong

He had a better idea, a much better idea
He made an angel like sweet perfume
A heavenly smile, someone who
Can light up a room with a heart so true
I thank God, He created me but when I look at you I see
He had a better idea

He had a better idea, a much better idea
He made an angel like sweet perfume
A heavenly smile, someone who
Can light up a room with a heart so true
I thank God, He created me but when I look at you I see
He had a better idea

He had a better idea
God had a better idea

Well, He hung the moon, raised the sun
Made the lions walk and the rivers run
Then He sat down, looked around
And thought a bit said, "It's all good but that ain't quite
it"

So with his mighty hand He created man and then
