They say for everyone, there's that certain one
Out there, somewhere
I'd been looking hard, searchin' every heart
Getting nowhere
Didn't know, I was makin' my way to you

Now I know how the river feels
When it reaches the sea
And finally finds the place
It was always meant to be

Holdin' fast, home at last
Knowing the journey's through
Lyn' here with you
I know how the river feels

Miles of loneliness, now make perfect sense
Here beside you
Tears like water fall, it was worth them all
Just to find you
And yours are the last arms I'll run to

Now I know how the river feels
When it reaches the sea
And finally finds the place
It was always meant to be

Holdin' fast, home at last
Knowing the journey's through
Lyn' here with you
I know how the river feels

Holdin' fast, home at last
Knowing the journey's through
Lyn' here with you
I know how the river feels

Oh, I know how the river feels
