I suppose I could stop it now
Say I didn't need it anyhow
Just walk away and let it go
Tip my hat and try to play it cool
To keep myself from being made a fool
I could pretend you don't already know

That I'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
But it's way too late
And your love is just too strong
And I'm already gone

There's no doubt about how I feel
Both my hands are off the wheel
So now it's really up to you
This is something that I've never done

You know I've always been the first to run
But girl this time there's nothing I can do

Cos I'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
It's way too late
Your love is just too strong
And I'm already gone

I tried so hard to keep the walls from falling
I found a hiding place and told my heart to wait

But 'm already gone
I never thought I'd cross over the line
It's way too late
Your love is just too strong
And I'm already gone
I'm already gone
