She had trailer park charm
He carved her name in his arm
Then he slept with the waitress from the bar
Then she took a chain to his car
And broke the windows on the love they had
Redneck love gone bad

He got all liquored up
Tried to hotwire her truck
The next thing he knew, he was seeing stars
While her daddy knocked him all around the yard
Oh what a night they had
Redneck love gone bad

Around and around the blue lights go
Everybody's smoking and watching the show
But it's over now
There's twenty-three versions of this story
Some say her love just drove that boy insane
But to me it's plain
Redneck love gone bad

He's going with her mother now
Every Friday night we see them cruise through town
A few months back, she ran away
With a truck driver named Jos?
She's happy and he's so glad
Redneck love gone bad

Around and around the stories go
Everybody's laughing at watching the show
That's unless you've had
Redneck love gone bad
Redneck love gone bad

Redneck love gone bad
