Let the tears fall like rain
If that's what it takes
To wash away your memory

Let the hurt take its time
I don't mind waitin'
If that's the way it's gotta be

I'll keep holdin' on
'Til the heartache's gone

All the might have beens
And the never will be's
They can never take your place

But they're all that's left
Of all that ever mattered to me
And they fill this empty space

And I'll keep holdin' on
'Till the heartache's gone

I'll make believe you still love me
'Till the heartache is gone
I'll pretend you still care
'Till the heartache is gone
You'll always be here
'Till the heartache is gone

Oh I can make it through
The pain of losing you
That's the way it's gotta be

I'll keep holdin' on
No matter how long
'Til the heartache's gone
