Maybe in time,
these wounds will heal,
and all of these punctures will disappear.
Wounds will heal!

This painless procedure,
won't hurt at all.
Lay down all the knives,
to catch my fall.
This painless procedure,
won't hurt at all.

You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used.
You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used. (you used)

I'm drowning in hopes that things will change.
That all of your lies will wash away.
I'm drowning in hopes that things will change.

You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used.
You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used. (you used)

And maybe in time.
These wounds will heal.
And all of these punctures will disappear.
Maybe in time these wounds will heal.

You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used.
You're turning away from the truth.
Denying the words that you used.

Wounds will heal!
(Screaming)
