Wish you could see yourself as I do,
Beautiful and more
We all had a heavenly time with you before Missing you now the world is in mourning just standing still
We all had a reason to wish you well
And I can't believe your gone,
Maybe just moved down to the city
And it makes no sense at all
Just makes no sense to me
Can it be we are all temporarily visiting
Can I stay while all the world is falling in on me
Now all I have are questions and one big mess inside
my head
Is this it are we just temporary visitors?

Try to believe this is all for good reason if I can Still I'm here trying to comprehend Another day done lost without meaning now you're gone
I'm left here waiting to understand And I don't know how it all works maybe it's just like the movies
Where no one ever really gets hurt
It sounds like shit to me
Can it be we are all temporarily visiting
Can I stay while all the world is falling in on me
Now all I have are questions and one big mess inside
my head
Is this it are we just temporary visitors?
