You were all I never wanted anyhow, yeah
But I sure want you now, yeah
But it's all over now
So it doesn't really matter
Don't know why I feel so shattered

It was all a dream so it seems to me now
How to fall in love into the heavens then floating down
Was it all in my head this premonition?
When I look back its hard to tell the difference
Bewteen what really happened
And what I imagined

But it's all over now
So it doesnt really matter
Dont know why I feel so shattered
I shoulda known better
You were all I never wanted anyhow, yeah
And I sure want you now, yeah
But it's all over now
So it doesnt really matter
Don't know why I feel so shattered
I shoulda known better
You were all I ever wanted anyhow, yeah

You were all I ever wanted anyhow, yeah
And I sure want you now, yeah
But it's all over now
So it doesn't really matter
Don't know why I feel so shattered
