Now love is pourin' through the window, comin' in the door

I can feel it creepin' through the cracks in the floor
Bouncin' off the walls and the ceilin' up above
Since I found you, I'm livin' in a house of love

All my life my heart's been walked on Men said they loved me, my how they talked on Tellin' me lies and fillin' my eyes with tears
That I couldn't control

I couldn't get a hold of myself long enough to realize
They were only tryin' to pull the wool over my eyes
Then I found you, then the skies turned blue
And I'm livin' in a house of love

Now love is pourin' through the window, comin' in the door

I can feel it creepin' through the cracks in the floor
Bouncin' off the walls and the ceilin' up above
Since I found you I'm livin' in a house of love

Once I lived in a hole like a rabbit
I couldn't find love and the blues were a habit
A lonely girl and I couldn't understand
Why everything I tried went wrong

Till you came along bless your heart
And showed me the right way
You dried my eyes and turned my night to day
I'm so proud I wanna holler out loud I'm livin' in a house of love

Now love is pourin' through the window, comin' in the door

I can feel it creepin' through the cracks in the floor
Bouncin' off the walls and the ceilin' up above
Since I found you I'm livin' in a house of love

Now love is pourin' through the window, comin' in the door

I can feel it creepin' through the cracks in the floor

Bouncin' off the walls and the ceilin' up above
Since I found you I'm livin' in a house of love
