The autumn leaves
Drift by my window
The autumn leaves
Of red and gold
I see your lips
The summer kisses
The sunburnt hands
I used to hold.

But since you went away
The days grow long
And soon IÂ'll hear
Old winterÂ's song
But I miss you most af all
My darling
When autumn leaves start to fall.

The autumn leaves
Drift by my window
The autumn leaves
Of red and gold
I see your lips
The summer kisses
The sunburnt hands
I used to hold.

But since you went away
The days grow long
And soon IÂ'll hear
Old winterÂ's song
But I miss you most af all
My darling
When autumn leaves start to fall.
