Keep falling in and out of love
In search for what Iâ€™m dreaming of
I long to find a love Iâ€™m sure about
That certain kind of love that moves all doubts

Keep falling in and out of love
Still searching for that special one
To whom I can give my love completely
And feel a lasting love so sweetly

Just when I feel sure loveâ€™s here to stay
It seems to suddenly just fade away
Canâ€™t seem to find that everlasting love
That this heart of mine needs so much of

Keep falling in and out of love
Canâ€™t seem to find the lasting kind
It seems I canâ€™t find the joy I need
Love always somehow all goes wrong for me

Keep falling in and out of love
Keep falling in and out of love

Ooh, I keep reaching out for tenderness
Touching a hand that holds emptiness
Well Iâ€™m looking for a love that lingers on Long after that first kiss is gone
That kind of love that keeps burning bright
Long after weâ€™ve said goodnight

Keep falling in and out of love
In search for what Iâ€™m dreaming of
Keep falling in and out of love
