Feelin', Feelin'
Swear to God, this is more than I can deal with
Thinkin' back on that old song
Where did I go wrong by caring and sharing?

Mean, together no matter I can't stand not knowing
Is this what feeling gets a hope for happy endings?
Alone and scared something I don't want to be
What did he see when he looked inside of me?

If this is just a dream
How come I feel like screaming?
This is the real world
Gotta do what you must, girl

Well, can I, can I?
Is this what feeling gets?
So is there a happy ending?

There's nothing here but the fear of, will I try?
And can I stare it in the eye not ever knowing why?
Please, please can someone tell me why?
