(Brandy)

Sometimes we make each other cry
Sometimes were locked inside the prisons of our pride
Sometimes we break each others herts with the words we say
Let anger get in the way too many times

(Chorus)

But always after all
Love is all that matters
After everything
One thing remains the same
One thing we cannot change

We all have one heart
And one heart needs another
Love is all that matters
Love is all that matters
It matters after all

(Diana Ross)

Sometimes we search this world for gold
When all we really need is just a hand to hold (hand to Hold)
Sometimes we let the greatest treasure just slip away

With words we forget to say too many times
(With the words)

(Both Chorus)

But always after all
Love is all that matters
After everything
One thing remains the same
One thing we cannot change

We,we all have one heart
And one heart needs another
Love,love is all that matters
Love is all that matters
It matters after all

(Brandy)
After all that weve been through
(Diana Ross)
It comes down to one simple truth
(Both)
You need me, I need you
Cause love is all that matters
Love is all that matters
Love is all that matters
It matters after all

Love is all that matters
