Sons are usually the ones every man likes to plant his seed but my Dad never had a son
he had me
He'd say, "You're my baby girl"
"and I'm sure you'll endure the pains in this world" just remember...
"when you're reaching for hope but nothing will show
wise just to wait for awhile, fate knows the answer that you'd like to know might as well face him in stride."

Chorus:
If it's love, take it
If it's error, don't fake it
'Cause you must face it
Sometime

Dreamers must dream to touch what is real
'cause a stream of sorrow
will appear

A loser will lose and ask, "What's the deal?"
seems like good fortune never comes 'round here

Chorus:
If it's love, take it
If it's error, don't fake it
'Cause you must face it
Sometime

Repeat Chorus x3
