black and blue broke down on the floor in my bedroom right here right now i use my favourite trick to get me up (close my eyes) all i wanna do is get away (ill be fine) once im heading for my sweet escape (when i went)

Chorus

Dancing in the dark with the boy i met in paris, sitting in the front row of my radio show didnt catch his name but it didnt even matter we were dancing in the dark, dancing in the dark
underneath the stars, stole my heart with this rhythm
