Ever since I turned around and saw you standin' there.
Two best friends fell in love and that's how it began.
The days have all gone by. Months and years are gone for sure. No stronger love than the day we wed. I think I love you more.

Ever since I turned around and saw you standin' there.
We've been together since then and I'm so glad we've been to Negril Jamaica, the Carolina shore. You love me more than life itself. I think I love you more.

(Chorus)

I think I love you more than the day I first met you. I think I love you more than the last time we made love. I think I love you more than I ever dreamed was true.
Well baby one thing I know for sure I think I love you more.

Ever since I turned around and saw you standin' there.
We've been together since then and I'm so glad we've been living the good life of all that love ensures. You love me more than life itself. I think I love you more

(Repeat chorus)

I think I love you more than the day I first met you. I think I love you more than the last time we made love-wow. I think I love you more than I ever dreamed was true. Well baby one thing I know for sure I think I love you more.

Ever since I turned around and saw you standin' there.
