Though I'd take a drive to your house you left me cryin'
last night
Two cars are parked in the driveway Laughter is coming from inside
Is He There with you making your dreams come true promising everything in sight Or is he just o share helping you pass the time away Is he there

I know we haven't been on the best terms Lately all we seem to do is fight I just came by to see you Making sure everything's alright
But he's there with you making your dreams come true
promising everything in sight
All night long he'll be taking the place of me Keeping you warm and by his side Is he there Is it love or is it just the rebound from the two of us

He is there with you making your dreams come true
promising everything in sight
All night long he'll be taking the place of me keeping you warm and by his side
He is there thought I'd take a drive to your house
You left me cryin' last night
